Celebration of Life

During this time of remembrance, our team is here to support you in honouring your loved one in a meaningful and personal way. With care and compassion, we thoughtfully manage the details to ensure a seamless and welcoming experience—so you and your family can focus on being together.

Our thoughtfully prepared menus are designed to bring friends and family together while honouring a life well lived, creating space for reflection, connection, and shared memories. At Tsawwassen Springs, we offer a beautiful and comforting setting where loved ones can gather to celebrate a life in a way that feels right. With no hard rules for a Celebration of Life, our dedicated event planner will gently guide you through the process, respectfully handling every detail so you can focus on what truly matters.
